

CONCERNS OF POLICE SURVIVORS

June 16, 2014

Dear Lisa:

On behalf of Concerns of Police Survivors, please accept our sincere thanks for all your hard work during National Police Week 2014. Your help in providing support to the surviving families of our fallen law enforcement officers was greatly appreciated and made the week a tremendous success. It is only through the dedication of caring compassionate people like you, that Concerns of Police Survivors has been able to continue to achieve its mission to help those left behind rebuild their shattered lives for the past 30 years.

We have included a National Police Week 2014 Fact Sheet for your information and use. Please feel free to share this in your newsletters; we think it really shows the impact C.O.P.S. has on survivors during this event-filled week.

The C.O.P.S. chapters are such an important part of the mission and we sincerely appreciate everything you do throughout the year for the surviving families. We look forward to working with you and your team in the future!

Sincerely,

Dianne Bernhard
